

Nicolette Lawson invites you to a special evening at the Happy Heart Café, Olton, Solihull

BOND, BOOKS AND WATER

Join us for an informative, entertaining and fund raising evening focused on water, the most critical and vital of our natural resources. Featuring the James Bond type novel – “The Acionna Projects”. Author David Middleton will explain what a pacey, raunchy adventure has to do with the serious subject of water.

Raffle in support of WATER AID

Friday, June 24th from 7.30pm

A large, rusted metal ship is beached on a sandy shore. The ship's hull is heavily corroded, with patches of white and brown rust. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall mood is one of desolation and abandonment.
