

Making Places Last – Sustainable Homes and Communities

7th November 2018 - MAC Birmingham

Making Places Last is the 4th in a series of successful annual events focusing on Sustainable Homes and Communities, which aims to bring together product and service providers who can collaborate with those who are responsible for delivering low carbon, sustainable communities

Who Should Attend?

Policy Makers, Social Housing Providers, Energy/Sustainability/Estate Managers/Advisors in the Public/Private/Education and Third Sector and suppliers of low carbon sustainable solutions

Speakers Already Confirmed

Beverley Nielsen Director BCU – Chair

Ben Harding Corporate Development Director SUEZ recycling and recovery UK
Gerrard Fisher OSA Partners LLP

Dr David Greenfield Co-organiser and Mentor Circular Economy Club

Prof Peter Slater University of Birmingham

Thomas Fell The Green Kilo

Paul Dockerill Director of Energy and Programme Management whg (Walsall Housing Group)

Register NOW - FREE to attend
Exhibitors £200

To register go to www.climate-change-solutions.co.uk

For further information contact
David Middleton davidm@dmc-sd.co.uk
0121 444 2683/07815 531 660

Climate Action Network
West Midlands

